Esteemed and Dear Sir:

I hereby acknowledge the receipt of the Boston Traveller containing your strong & unanswerable reply to Mr Blaine, for which please accept my most cordial thanks.

Mr W. Phillips sent it to me a few days before, cut from the Tribune - It has the ring of other days in it, and it awakened in my mind a thrill of emotion and gratitude that a Kind Providence has spared your precious life to reutter those great & sublime truths so much needed in their new application in the present crisis - How strong one is with God & the right! I heard Mr. Phillips recently, & was very glad to learn from him that you was quite well & intellectually vigorous.

The cause of universal liberty and equality need you still! as one sent of God to reassert the supremacy of right and the will of God.

Ever your true & faithful

Friend, Jehiel Claflin
